

Rule 5 For Fluent English

Use Point of View Stories

Download The English MP3 Audio Below

How are you today? Are you having a great day? I'm doing well.

Today I'm back to explain Rule 5

With Rule 2, I told you never to study grammar rules. But, of course, you want to use correct English grammar.

Maybe you are thinking, "How can I learn English grammar if I don't study English grammar rules?"

Well, today I will tell you.

I will teach you a way to learn grammar naturally. Use this method and your grammar will improve automatically. You will automatically use the correct verb tense. You won't think. You won't try.

"I am glad to tell you that I have improved my English after listening to your Effortless English Lessons. I think your Effortless English system is great."
–Aleister Yu, Singapore

Rule 5: A Story

Miyuki did very well on grammar tests. She knew all of the grammar rules. She knew English verbs.

But Miyuki had a problem. She couldn't USE the grammar in a real conversation. She could explain the past tense, but when speaking, she would say "Yesterday I GO to school".

Miyuki was confused. How could her grammar tests be so good, but her speaking so bad?

Miyuki said:

"Before Effortless English, I knew all the grammar rules, but I couldn't speak correctly. I couldn't feel English grammar. After using Point of View stories, I feel it and use it correctly.

Now my grammar is great when I speak. I never think about it, I just automatically use correct grammar. Thank you A.J.!"

Miyuki learned this grammar naturally. She never studied grammar rules. How did she do it?

First she listened to a short story in the present tense. She listened to it everyday.

Then, she listened to the exact SAME story– but this time it started with “10 years ago....” She learned to “feel” the past tense by listening to this story.

Next, I gave her the exact same story. This time, it started with “Since 2004...” Miyuki learned to FEEL the perfect tenses by listening to this story.

Finally, I gave her the exact same story... beginning with “Next year”. She learned to FEEL the future tense simply by listening to this story.

Thanks A Lot. I Can't Believe I Found The Solution To My Problems. Thanks From The Bottom Of My Heart!

RULE 5: Use Point Of View Mini-Stories

I call these stories “Point Of View Mini-Stories”. They are the most powerful way to learn and use English grammar automatically.

Use Point of View Stories for Automatic Grammar
Use Point of View Stories for Automatic Grammar

You must learn grammar by listening to real English. The best way is to listen to the same story... told in different times (points of view): Past, Perfect, Present, Future.

How do you do this? Easy! Find a story or article in the present tense. Then ask your native speaker tutor to write it again in the Past, with Perfect tenses, and in the Future. Finally, ask him to read and record these stories for you.

Then you can listen to story with many different kinds of grammar. You don't need to know the grammar rules. Just listen to the Point of View stories and you will improve grammar automatically!

You can also find Point of View lessons and use them to learn grammar automatically.

It is powerful. It is simple. It is successful. You will succeed. You will use correct grammar naturally and automatically.

This is the secret to English grammar.

“Hi AJ. I want to tell you that I really really benefited from Effortless English. Everyday I meet my American teacher and I can really communicate with him. I really don’t know how to thank you!!!!”

How To Learn Real English

In the next email, I will tell you how to avoid textbooks and learn only real English.

I guarantee you will succeed. Don’t quit. You can do it 😊

Have a great day!

PS: Today’s Homework

1. Listen to this email 10 times while reading, and 10 times without reading. Get the audio now below.

2. Find a Native Speaker Tutor

- * Advertise in an English paper, or in places where foreigners visit
- * Ask your tutor to create Point of View mini-stories for you
- * Ask your tutor to record the Point of View stories
- * Listen to them every day

3. Buy my lessons, if you can’t find a native speaker tutor. Many of my lesson sets include Point of View stories.
